UNITY THROUGH DIVERSITY . . .

EVERYTHING IS BEAUTIFUL

Jesus loves the little children, all the little children of the world,
Red and yellow, black and white,
they are precious in his sight, Jesus loves the little children of the world. Everything is beautiful in its own way, Like a starry summer night or a snow covered winter's day. Everybody's beautiful in their own way, under God's heaven the world's gonna find a way. There is none so blind as he who will not see, We must not close our minds,
We must let our thoughts be free,
For ev'ry hour that passes by you know the world gets a little bit older, It's time to realize that beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder. Everything is beautiful in its own way.

Ray Stevens

Brett,
Again, I again say that it was mistaking for you to be a preacher. But who understands the way
of religion—

St. Cely
(Steve Cely)

Griff

Remember that true happiness comes from within and to love yourself before others. Don't be afraid to touch those who reach out to you, they only want to know you as you really are; a sweet, confident, slightly shy person with a very sarcastic wit. Ride with the tide. Take care and have a terrific summer.

I wish you multiple fractures forever.

See you next year.

Love,

Sissy Zan

TO KNOW HER WAS TO RESPECT HER

"Mrs. VanCamp made an indelible impression on my life. She was one of the first educators that I have had the privilege of knowing. Her dedication, loyalty, and belief in the worth of North High students has left a legacy that will enrich our school for years to come. Her courage in the face of great personal pain has been an inspiration and a cause for hope for every life that hers has touched."

Horace Jackson

"The measure of life is not in its duration, but its donation. Although the duration of Mrs. Van Camp's life was brief, in its donation, the measure is full and running over. No one can Estimate just how far reaching her influence was on the lives of those North High students and staff who were privileged to know her."

Bonnie Rose

'Tis easy to see,
hard to forsee.

After crosses and losses,
men grow humbler and wiser . . .

1st. (I see you are at Whon h in the year. I think we have changed a lot. The last two years that we have seen friends. The performers 'ager', Meddumma and really 'erchis' were all F.A.T.S.I.C. and that is a totally increased point of view. I'm really enjoy about being in the theater so is people you meet. I'm glad that we are becoming as close as we have because of these intervals.
 In 'Tager' you helped me when I was giving me such hard time. (Now that I look back on that situation I have to smile because I probably overreacted) and in Meddumma you made me smile during my saddest months. (Even though I was depressed about some so bad now) and in Dances you talked to me and wouldn't have to listen to all those silly mouthed, proportioning stagehands. I don't really mean that about the stagehands but it sounds good.
 I want you to know that I always have fun with you thought you were great.

 I hope that you are always very happy and that you won't suffer any real disappointments. I'll be with you in any way I can say as that I'm very sure and that it was never intentional.

THIRD YEAR

My Dear Brett,
 Agg'n times time to say these damned things.
 Actually I find this time a rewarding ~~one~~ in many ways. At least people can express themselves to me another

Regarding you I've known you for about a year, now and during that time I have seen you change from a cute kid to a bottle
 surrend' hipster.

As I go on to further obscurity, I will leave you with a valuable piece of advice that has helped me to survive thus far.

"The best draught that one can drink is the swallowing of ~~one's~~ anger."

Archaic, yes; emphatic, yes. Useless,
 NO.

Take care Brett, and may the coming year find you in good health and spirits.

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who, at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

- Theodore Roosevelt

A black and white photograph showing a large group of people, likely a crowd or a formal assembly, gathered in front of a building. The individuals are mostly men wearing suits and hats. The scene is captured in high-contrast, grainy black and white, with the foreground and background appearing very dark, while the crowd is more visible. The building behind them has large, dark rectangular windows.

In commemoration of America's 200th birthday (Bicentennial) the Aurora staff sponsored a yearbook cover design contest. Out of the one hundred entries (most who were enrolled in Mr. White's Art Class) submitted, CINDY WENNERMARK emerged as the winner. Cindy won a plaque, fifty dollars in cash, and a beautiful AL RORA yearbook for her time, effort and creativity in designing this years AL RORA cover. Mr. White, Mr. Knie and Mr. Reinhold are to be commended for their efforts in helping to judge entries and in supportive efforts of the yearbook.

As another year has come to pass it is now the time to look forward into the future, as well as look back on the memories of the past. We are the leaders and laborers of tomorrow. It is up to us to decide the fate of this world on which we live. The road we take would best be one into which no barriers of race or ethnic origin exist. We will inherit a world filled with death, crime, inhumanity, pollution, and hatred. The changes we make can transform this world into a beacon of peace, friendship, and a world of harmony or we can be apathetic towards the problems which now surround us and destroy the earth on which we live.

How will you decide?

Brett,
You long haired freaky
waterford player dont cut your hair all summer so you can be the long hair of the school. Anyway, you know I'm just kidding (Lying) Have fun with your theatre and I'll see you all summer.
Don't let it!

Dear Brett,
I have really enjoyed having you around here all of this time - most of all I look like you are for me. I'm pinched with out being the shadow leader although this should be fairly painful. I hope it works out OK. Good luck in all you do.
Sincerely,
Lynn
